The Board of Directors at MSAB proposes to the Annual General Meeting to decide on a dividend of SEK 2 per share

The Board of MSAB (publ) proposes to the Annual General Meeting to decide on a dividend of SEK 2 per share. The proposal reflects the company's strong financial position, the great interest in the company's solutions globally and confidence in continued strong development during the year - despite the current pandemic.

- MSAB's financial position is strong. The company and the board have carefully analyzed both the current situation with the ongoing pandemic and uncertainties in future cash flows. We have come to the conclusion that the company is well equipped to meet future challenges. The proposed dividend reflects the board's overall picture of the company's current and continued capabilities, says MSAB's chairman of the board, Henrik Tjernberg, in a comment.

The Annual General Meeting will be held on May 11. Notice to the AGM will be sent out separately and includes the Board's other resolution proposals.
