

MSAB Announces the Appointment of Caroline Palm as New Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO)

MSAB, a global leader in forensic technology for mobile device extraction and analysis, today announces the appointment of Caroline Palm as its new Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO), effective October 6th, 2025.

Caroline Palm joins MSAB with over 15 years of experience as a business-driven HR leader in international environments across several industry segments. Most recently, she served in a consultancy role, advising organisations on HR transformation initiatives to build global, data-driven capabilities. Her previous roles include senior leadership positions at Voi Technology AB, Leo Vegas Group AB and Serendipity AB.

"We are delighted to welcome Caroline Palm to the management team," says Peter Gille, CEO of MSAB. "Her strategic expertise and data-driven approach to HR will be instrumental as we continue to globalise and professionalise our operations. Her focus on performance management and talent development also aligns closely with our growth objectives."

"I am very much looking forward joining the team at MSAB and am excited about becoming part of a global company with such an important role to play in supporting customers with advanced technology to make the world a safer place. I feel confident that my experience in driving business-focused, scalable, and analytics-driven HR practices will allow me to contribute to MSAB's continued growth journey," says Caroline Palm.

About MSAB

MSAB is a world leader in forensic technology for extracting and analysing data in mobile devices. The company develops high-quality and easy-to-use software for law enforcement organisations, such as police, defense, and customs. The products, which have become a de facto standard for securing evidence and intelligence in criminal investigations, can be supplemented with reporting tools and a broad range of training with certifications within a holistic method for forensic science. The company serves customers in more than 100 countries worldwide, through its own sales offices and through distributors. MSAB is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm under the ticker name: MSAB B. www.msab.com
